

Cuchara Art Show ARTIST PACKET

The Cuchara Valley Recreation Program has revived the Cuchara tradition of having an Art Show for all to enjoy. A nice gathering place for families and friends. For decades the Cuchara Hermosa group sponsored the Hermosa Art Show starting in the 1950s. What a rich and wonderful history it had over the years.

Our new Cuchara Art Show is trying to honor and improve that tradition in the Cuchara Valley. This show is all about the artists, a celebration of artists!

Our show will be held on the first full weekend in August each year.

Interested in showing / selling your work?

Great! Just bring your art to the art drop off day to the Cuchara Community Center. An Art Label (see page 4) must be secured to the back (or bottom) of all pieces. This must include title of the piece, medium, price, number that corresponds to in-take form and artist's name.

At drop off we will have you fill out an Art Intake form with your information, artwork titles, medium, and price. We will ask you to number your pieces of art in the order of preference of having them hung in the initial hanging process. As your pieces are sold, the next piece in your chosen order will be hung. We will do our best to follow this process.

Please be sure to check out at 4pm on Sunday. You can pick up artwork not purchased. Checks will be mailed out about one week after the show wraps up. Commission is 7%
